

ASURA

Asura is a feral, free-flowing display typeface that mixes poster-era elegance with a hint of delightful chaos. Its sharp ends, unpredictable bends, and mischievous letter skeletons make it feel like a 19th-century French sign painter had a caffeine rush and decided to reinvent the alphabet.

Every glyph in Asura marches to its own beat, yet somehow they all vibe together like a beautifully disorganised parade. It's expressive without being messy, wild without losing its manners, and dramatic without taking itself too seriously.

From rebellious branding to offbeat posters, cryptic zines, experimental titles, and anything that needs a touch of "beautiful weird," Asura delivers attitude with a wink. Think of it as a sophisticated troublemaker: unpredictable, elegant, and very much alive.
